Editors' Note

It has been a true honor for all of us at genesis to delve into the submissions this semester. We received a wide variety of styles, genres, and subject matter. Although we choose only a small selection, we appreciate the submissions that were not included in this issue, and we would like to urge all writers, poets, and artists to continue submitting to genesis, IUPUI's student literary and art magazine. Submission guidelines for next semester, Spring 2006, can be found in the back of this issue.

We would also like to thank you, our audience. We hope to bring pleasure, beauty, and a little laughter into your lives. Readers of genesis provide valued opinions, so we urge you, the reader, to tell us how we did. What would you like to see in genesis? Is there anything we can improve on? You can contact us via email at genesis1@iupui.edu.

Sincerely,
The genesis Staff

$100 Prizes for Best in Issue for Poetry, Fiction, Creative Non-Fiction, and Art!

All submissions due Monday, February 13th 2006

E-Mail Submissions:

genesis requires e-mail submissions of all genres (please indicate your genre with one of the following categories: poetry, fiction, creative non-fiction, or art). If possible, name attachments by the title of the submissions. Be sure to include titles, genre, medium, size, contact information, and a short biographical note (no more than fifty words) in the body of the e-mail.

Send all submissions to genesis1@iupui.edu.

Writers' Guidelines:

Literary submissions must be sent via e-mail as Microsoft Word attachments. All genres should be typewritten, single-spaced, and contain no more than 3,500 words. Students may submit a maximum of five poems and a maximum of two prose pieces — fiction and/or creative non-fiction. Please do not put your name on the manuscripts.

Artists' Guidelines:

A maximum of five art submissions should be sent via e-mail as TIFF or JPEG files (with a resolution of 300 dpi - 600 dpi). If the file is too large to send via email please copy to a CD (resolution of 300 dpi - 600 dpi) and leave it in the genesis mailbox which is located in Cavanaugh Hall, Room 502L. Clearly label your artwork with title, medium, size, and a short biographical note. If you must bring in the original artwork you may drop it off in Cavanaugh Hall Room 502L. If you send original artwork be sure to include your name, e-mail address, phone number, and home address so your artwork may be returned. Artwork will be held for a maximum of three months; special arrangements need to be made if artwork is needed sooner. Please note that all artworks, except those which go on the front and back covers, will be reproduced in black and white.
