

Department of Music and Arts Technology's Music Therapy Program

Debra Burns, Purdue School of Engineering and Technology; Phillip Mauskapf, Key Hwa Lee, Music Students

The Music Therapy Program in the Department of Music and Arts Technology has two main goals: to improve the quality of life of individuals through the use of music-based interventions and to use rigorous, scientific methods to determine the best use of music-based interventions for individuals with medical and developmental needs.