Information Literacy

- A set of abilities requiring individuals to "recognize when information is needed and have the ability to locate, evaluate, and use effectively the needed information."

(American Library Association, 2000, 2004)

- Information literacy has been described as the core literacy of the 21st century and is included as a key component of 21st century skills

(Garner, 2006, p. 68; Institute of Museum & Library Services, 2009; Gilchrist & Oakleaf, 2012)

An Information Literate Student can:

- Determine the extent of information needed
- Access the needed information effectively and efficiently
- Evaluate information and its sources critically
- Incorporate selected information into one's knowledge base
- Use information effectively to accomplish a specific purpose
- Understand the economic, legal, and social issues surrounding the use of information, and access and use information ethically and legally.

Library Instruction in the TLCs

Typical

- Introduction, Tours
- Faculty-driven
- Scavenger Hunts
- One-shot sessions
- Minimal prior knowledge, planning
- Limited communication or collaboration
- No assessment or formative
- Next contact...Senior year?

High-Impact

- Engaged, authentic tasks and assessment (formative and summative); personal
- Faculty, librarian, advisor, and student driven
- Aligned with course, department, institutional, and professional goals
- Repeat visits to library and class
- Project or problem-based learning
- Blended learning
- Flipped classroom

Faculty, Student, Librarian, Advisor, Mentor...

What role do you play?

Spoiler
Alert...

“Crazy, Stupid, Love”

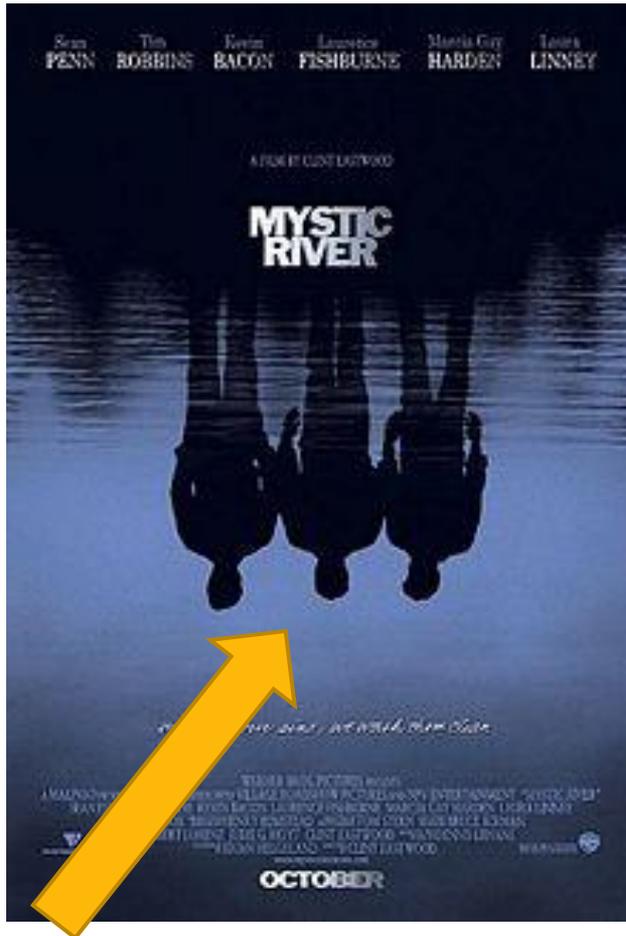

- Student and faculty success related to library resources and instruction
- Misperceptions
- Relationships
- LEaP and VALUE (Kuh, 2008): high-impact, personal growth and self-reflection, and what works in the right situation
- Value of Academic Libraries (Oakleaf, 2011):
Set high standards, and...you never know who you might be connected to

“Where the Truth Lies”

- Unanswered questions
- Research and personal connection
- NSSE, CSSE, NCES
- End-of-course evaluations
- Self-report
- Formative/Summative assessment
- Tours, orientations, training

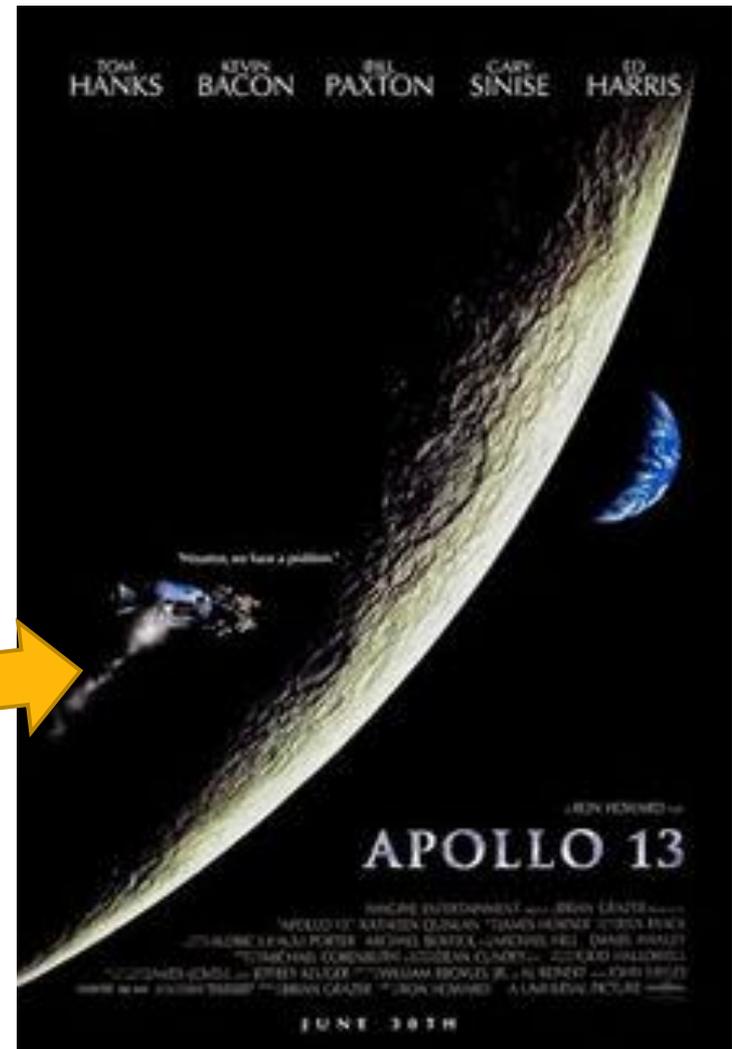

“Mystic River”

- What do we do?
- Other departments—advising, writing centers, career centers/placement, research, faculty/teaching centers, professional development, and mentoring
- Trust
- Relationships
- Support

“Apollo 13”

- Houston...
- Take a risk, but avert a crisis
- Practice, practice...
- Common goals
- Authentic assessment
- Explore new relationships
- Follow through
- Celebrate victories!

“The Big Picture”

- Make connections
- Anti-heroic, supporting characters
- Unconventional
- Ensemble
- Supporting role, director, or lead
- Virtual support
- Learning spaces
- Librarian: organizer, reviewer, fact-checker, aggregator, teacher, relationship-builder

Hayes (Taylor & Stamatoplos, 1999):

“Librarians must be granted the authority, responsibility, and time to develop the programs that will accommodate institution-wide curriculum needs, rather than merely responding to individual requests from those faculty who already recognize the importance of information research to their teaching.”
