Dedication

To my Grandfathers, Edward Pfeiffer and Elmer Ludwig, who through their service in the Army and Navy respectively during World War II, taught me the importance of always remembering the sacrifices of those who came before us.

Acknowledgments

When a thesis takes you almost five years to finish, there are many people to thank in the end. First, I must thank my parents for always supporting me, even when I decided to pursue a career in history. My girlfriend Casey has been with me through most of my thesis journey and has always been a rock of support for me. My grad school friends have been with me through thick and thin, with a special shout out to Melissa Fanning for giving me the idea to write about Vincennes. Throughout the research process, I received invaluable support from Judge Jim Osborne, the Indiana State Library, the Indiana Military Museum, the Lewis Historical Library at Vincennes University, and the Knox County Library. Finally, I must thank my committee of Dr. Kevin Cramer, Professor Rebecca Shrum, and most of all Dr. Phil Scarpino, who always stuck with me from day 1 all the way to the very end.
