THREAT ANALYSIS
St. Luke’s Cornwall Hospital in Newburgh, NY went on lock-down over the weekend when an employee reported seeing a man in the parking garage carrying what she believed was a rifle. Upon further questioning and review of the video tape, it was determined that the man is question was actually a hospital security officer carrying an umbrella. A similar incident occurred at a Massachusetts mall in April when people reported seeing a man carrying a rifle on his back. Upon investigation it was determined that he was carrying an umbrella.

ACTION STEPS
Vigilance and response is essential, but be prepared for mistaken reports of threats
[1] Encourage staff to report threats.
[2] Contact security/law enforcement immediately if a threat is suspected.
[5] Gather as much detailed information about the individual(s) and threat as possible.

INDY EVENTS
The following events have an expected attendance of at least 500 people. Mass gatherings are of concern to the healthcare sector for multiple reasons, including being potential mass casualty incidents as the result of natural or man-made hazards, and also provide venues for transmission of communicable diseases.
