

Access to Complex Dental Treatment for Patients with an Intellectual/Developmental Disability

Darlene West

Third and fourth year dental students obtain clinical experience providing dental care to intellectually and developmentally disabled community members by participating in a clinical elective course offered in the IU School of Dentistry, through a partnership with Goodwill. This partnership enables students to provide dental services in Goodwill locations. Dental students work to provide access to much needed complex dental treatments for patients with intellectual/ developmental disabilities throughout the community.